

Cumberland
School

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Policy

Last Update: September 2020

Next Update: September 2021

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Policy

Statement and Vision

Witherslack Group is committed to equality of opportunity and to a pro-active and inclusive approach to equality, which supports and encourages all and promotes an inclusive culture, and values diversity. In order to express this commitment, we develop, promote and maintain policies that will be conducive to the principles of fairness and equality in the workplace. The aim is for our workforce to be truly representative of all sections of society, and for each employee to feel respected and able to give their best.

The objective of this policy is that no person in our employment, whether temporary, part-time or full-time, should suffer or experience less favourable treatment, discrimination or lack of opportunities on the grounds of age, disability, gender (including gender reassignment), Marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race including colour, nationality, ethnicity or national origin, sex, sexual orientation, religion or belief in line with the Equality Act 2010. To oppose and avoid all forms of unlawful discrimination. This includes in pay and benefits, terms and conditions of employment, dealing with grievances and discipline, dismissal, redundancy, leave for parents, requests for flexible working, and selection for employment, promotion, training or other developmental opportunities.

We are therefore committed to a policy and practice which require that all employees and potential employees are treated equally. Career progression will be determined only by personal merit, by performance and by the application of criteria which are related to the duties and conditions of each particular post and the needs of the establishment.

If any person appointed as an employee considers that he or she is suffering from unequal treatment on any of the above grounds in his or her appointment, or progression through the company, he or she may make a complaint, which will be dealt with through the agreed grievance procedure.

Our Responsibility

As part of maintaining a high quality workplace, we with our leadership teams commit to :

- Ensure that people who are in our employment are protected from direct discrimination on the basis of a 'protected characteristic'. The relevant characteristics are:
 - disability
 - age
 - gender reassignment
 - pregnancy and maternity leave
 - race – this includes ethnic or national origins, colour and nationality
 - religion, belief or lack of religion/ belief
 - sex
 - sexual orientation
 - marriage and civil partnership

Except in the case of pregnancy and maternity, people who are protected do not actually have to possess the characteristic themselves. Protection also applies, for example, where the person is unfairly treated because they are wrongly perceived to have a particular characteristic (or are treated as though they had it) or because they associate with someone who has the characteristic.

- Promote equality of opportunity , diversity and inclusion in the workplace

- Create a working environment free of bullying, harassment, victimisation and unlawful discrimination, promoting dignity and respect for all, and where individual differences and the contributions of all staff are recognised and valued.
- This commitment includes training managers and all other employees about their rights and responsibilities under the equality, diversity and inclusion policy. Responsibilities include staff conducting themselves to help the organisation provide equal opportunities in employment, and prevent bullying, harassment, victimisation and unlawful discrimination.
- All staff should understand they, as well as their employer, can be held liable for acts of bullying, harassment, victimisation and unlawful discrimination, in the course of their employment, against fellow employees, customers, suppliers and the public
- Take seriously complaints of bullying, harassment, victimisation and unlawful discrimination by fellow employees, customers, suppliers, visitors, the public and any others in the course of the organisation's work activities.

Such acts will be dealt with as misconduct under our grievance and/or disciplinary procedures, and appropriate action will be taken. Particularly serious complaints could amount to gross misconduct and lead to dismissal without notice.

- Further, sexual harassment may amount to both an employment rights matter and a criminal matter, such as in sexual assault allegations. In addition, harassment under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997 – which is not limited to circumstances where harassment relates to a protected characteristic – is a criminal offence.
- Make opportunities for training, development and progress available to all staff, who will be helped and encouraged to develop their full potential, so their talents and resources can be fully utilised to maximise the efficiency of the organisation.
- Decisions concerning staff being based on merit (apart from in any necessary and limited exemptions and exceptions allowed under the Equality Act).
- Review employment practices and procedures when necessary to ensure fairness, and also update them and the policy to take account of changes in the law.
- Monitor the make-up of the workforce regarding information such as age, sex, ethnic background, sexual orientation, religion or belief, and disability in encouraging equality, diversity and inclusion, and in meeting the aims and commitments set out in the equality, diversity and inclusion policy.
- Monitoring will also include assessing how the equality, diversity and inclusion policy, and any supporting action plan, are working in practice, reviewing them annually, and considering and taking action to address any issues.
- Take positive action wherever possible to support this policy and its aims
- Create a culture that recognises, respects, values and harnesses differences for the benefit of the company and its users
- Ensure that new staff are made familiar with the policy upon recruitment/onboarding
- Ensure all staff complete Equality and Diversity Training on Educare
- Have in place suitable staff recruitment procedures that promote equal opportunities and ensure that staff have equal access to professional development opportunities; ensure that there is no discrimination against staff or eligible applicants for posts on the grounds of a protected characteristic.

Further Reading

- Employee Handbook which is available on My Self Service
- Code of conduct which is available on Witherslack Way
- Disciplinary and Grievance policies which are available on Witherslack Way
- Whistleblowing policy which is available on Witherslack Way